The TO 0003 solicitation provided that the Offeror's technical capability, as measured by the Technical Factors, is the primary basis for selection. It also said that the first two Technical Factors, Understanding of Requirement and Demonstration of Capabilities and Technical Approach/Management Plan are of equal importance to one another, and each is of higher importance than the last two Technical Factors, Staff Qualifications: Key Personnel and Corporate Facilities which are also of equal importance. Finally, the solicitation said that all technical factors combined are significantly more important than the cost.
